

BLACK AND BLUE TOUR OF THE UNC CAMPUS

With Tim McMillan, professor in African and Afro-American Studies

Prof. McMillan will guide a walking tour of campus historical landmarks, focusing on UNC's racial history and the memories that these landmarks preserve.

Wednesday, October 28, 2009 | 2-4 p.m.

Meet at the Unsung Founders Memorial on McCorkle Place, UNC-Chapel Hill

Free and open to the public

Details and rain date information: Liza Terll, Friends of the Library
(919) 962-4207 or liza\_terll@unc.edu

Presented by the Southern Historical Collection in conjunction with the exhibit
We Shall Not Be Moved: African Americans in the South, 18th Century to the Present.

On view in the Melba Remig Saltarelli Exhibit Room, Wilson Special Collections Library, through Feb. 5, 2010. Exhibit information: (919) 962-1345 or <http://library.unc.edu/blogs/news/>.

UNC
UNIVERSITY LIBRARY